

Moray Firth Cycling Club – McBean Hill Climb

This is the information on the course for the McBean Hill Climb, which is part of this summer's virtual series of time trials.

The Start

The start is off the B862 pass Darris and at the minor road junction. The start is just before the bridge and beside the light Blue marker post for The South Loch Ness Trail.

See photo of start below:

The Course

The course follows the minor road up past the McBean Memorial to the crossroads at the top of the hill.

The course is as illustrated below:

The Finish

The finish is located just before the crossroads at the top of the hill beside the Give Way sign.

See photo of finish below:

